Taurus

Become bright, radiant being, Feel growth's power. Weave life's thread In creative world existence, In thoughtful revelation, In shining life-contemplation. O radiant being, appear!

Cancer

Thou resting, glowing light, Create life warmth, Warm soul life To gain strength in test of trial, To become spirit permeated, In peaceful light created. Thou glowing light, become strong!

Virgo

Behold worlds, O soul!

May the soul fathom worlds,
May the spirit penetrate being,
Work with powers of life,
Build upon experiences undergone,
Trust in blossoming worlds to come.
O soul, know thou beings!

Scorpio

Existence consumes being, Yet in being existence endures. In activity growth disappears, In growth activity persists. In chastising world-activation, In punishing self-formation, Being sustains beings.

Capricorn

May the future rest upon the past.

May the past feel the future
To be strong in the present.

In face of life's inner resistance
May world-being's vigilance grow in power,
May the might of life's activity flower,
May the past bear the future!

Pisces

In losing may loss be found,
In winning may gain be lost,
In comprehending seek to grasp
And maintain in maintaining.
Through coming to existence upraised,
Through existing to become interlaced,
May loss be gain in itself!
