THE SHAMBHALA PATH
with
Robert Powell, PhD

Seminar/Workshop at Izhcayluma, Vilcabamba, Southern Ecuador from January 4-10, 2020

Arrival on Saturday, January 4 / Departure on Friday, January 10

Description of the Seminar/Workshop

When Shambhala reveals itself again, one of the first visions to come to human beings will be that of Christ in his etheric form. Into the land declared by Oriental writings to have vanished there is no leader other than Christ. It is Christ who will lead human beings to Shambhala.... In future, Christ will become visible to human beings in the etheric and not in a physical body.

From the middle of the twentieth century on, and continuing for the next twenty-five hundred years, this will happen more and more often. Enough people will by then have experienced [something like] the event [that Saul who became Paul experienced] at Damascus that it will be taken to be a common occurrence all over the world... In full consciousness human beings should enter this land [of Shambhala] under the guidance of Christ.

Even now the initiate can and must go often to the land of Shambhala in order to draw from there new forces. Later, other human beings, too, will enter the land of Shambhala. They will see its radiant light, as Paul saw above him—the light that streamed from Christ. This light will stream toward them, also. The portals of this realm of light will open to them, and through them they will enter the holy land of Shambhala.

~ Rudolf Steiner

Rudolf Steiner (1861-1925) had in 1899 a profound experience like that of St Paul—expressed in Paul’s words “Not I, but Christ in me.” Steiner was, as a Christ initiate, later able to enter into Shambhala and draw from there new forces. He emphasized, however, that this is only possible through Christ. He indicated: “The path is a true one; but it is very difficult.” Thus he was able to communicate the foregoing italicized words on the basis of his experience—through Christ—of Shambhala. His entire teaching was in order to prepare human beings for the onset of Christ’s second coming, his manifestation in the etheric realm, the realm of life forces, at the center of which is the golden realm of the Earth Mother—the realm known as Shambhala in the East and Paradise Lost in the West. How can we connect with this sacred realm of the Earth Mother, Shambhala?

One way is through the Shambhala Path, based on powerful movement (eurythmy) exercises communicated by Rudolf Steiner through his connection with Christ and the Mother. The Shambhala Path comprises 33 aspects and is divided into five segments—an Introduction, followed by Parts 1 to 4. On the first day of the seminar/workshop (Sunday, January 5) we shall focus on the introductory exercises.

For the practice of the exercises we shall be moving each day in the yoga studio at Izhcayluma, which is set in a beautiful location in Nature just a few minutes walk from the main building with the Izhcayluma restaurant, where our meals will be.

The seminar/workshop extends over five full days (Sunday to Thursday) and just as Sunday will be dedicated to the Introduction to the Shambhala Path, so each of the four following days (Monday to Thursday) will be devoted to one of the four parts of the Shambhala Path.

Part 1: Putting on the Rose Cross (Monday, January 6)

Part 2: Becoming a Grail bearer (Tuesday, January 7)

Part 3: Activating the Sephiroth within, the Spheres on the Tree of Life (Wednesday, January 8)

Part 4: Connecting with Shambhala (Thursday, January 9)

For those who would be interested, it will be possible to take part each day at 7:30 am in the yoga offered in the yoga studio. There will also be three evening celebrations in the yoga studio during the course of the week, in honor of Christ and the Earth Mother.

Practical Information:

Cheryl is happy to talk with you if you have any questions about the seminar/workshop. Also, she can give helpful advice regarding traveling to Vilcabamba—directly to Izhcayluma—or if you are too late in booking to secure accommodation at Izhcayluma, Cheryl can also give recommendations regarding other accommodation options in Vilcabamba, in which case, though, it will be necessary always to travel by taxi from your place of accommodation to Izhcayluma and back. (Fortunately, the taxis in Vilcabamba are very inexpensive.)

Restaurant Options:

There are many good restaurants in Vilcabamba, where it is possible to go for lunch and dinner, and Cheryl can give advice regarding various restaurant options. Again, though, it is a matter of arranging transportation with a taxi. For this reason, many may prefer to eat at the Izhcayluma restaurant, which is a very nice restaurant, as can be seen from the restaurant page of the Izhcayluma website.

Here with a direct link: <http://www.izhcayluma.com/en/restaurant.html>

Further helpful information on the website: photos of the accommodation options (Accommodation link) and also photos of the yoga studio (SPA/yoga link).

Travel:

Be sure to click the link: “Daily Shuttle Service directly from Cuenca to Izhcayluma” (departing each day at 1:30pm) and returning each day from Izhcayluma to Cuenca, departing at 8:00am. (Allow approximately five hours for the trip.) Because of the shuttle service—cost $15 per person—which is operated by Izhcayluma, the easiest way to travel to this remote destination, is to fly to Cuenca and take a taxi from the airport to Hostel "La Cigale", street Honorato Vasquez 7-80 y Luis Cordero, from which location in the city of Cuenca the shuttle departs every day at 1:30pm

Payment—Cash Only:

Vilcabamba—and this applies also to Izhcayluma—is a cash only region.

Fortunately, the cash used is the US$. And there are two functioning ATMs located at opposite sides of the town square in the center of Vilcabamba:

Banco de Austria ATM and Banco de Guayaquil ATM.

When it comes to paying at the little stores in Vilcabamba, it is helpful to have a good supply of $1, $5, $10, and $20 bills. (Note that at places like Izhcayluma it is not a problem to pay with larger bills.)

Videos:

Some recently made videos may be found on the Sophia Foundation website under “Resources”:<https://sophiafoundation.org/resources/> For those who are new to this work, the videos may be helpful. And a series of videos of the Shambhala Path are in preparation. Information concerning these new videos will be sent out by the Sophia Foundation.
