At His death the Christ-Being poured Himself out into the spiritual Earth-sphere, so that humankind may become more and more able to participate in that which, proceeding from the Mystery of Golgotha, can pour forth spiritual forces into the souls and hearts of all human beings.

— R. Steiner

Forgiveness has the potential to be of immeasurable significance for human evolution. It is among the most pressing spiritual issues of our time as well as a preeminent method of furthering spiritual evolution, both for individual human beings and for the Earth. There is a metaphysical reality to love and forgiveness that requires a collaborative effort between human beings and spiritual beings who actively engage in the evolution of life on the Earth within the law of karma. This unerring law of justice governs existence from the microcosmic dimension of the atom to the outermost cosmic spaces.

Human acts of forgiveness have the power to transform individual karma. Forgoing the inclination for revenge and renouncing the recompense that is due initiates far-reaching spiritual consequences. Sacrifice of self-interest through forgiveness liberates boundless forces of spiritual beings from the necessity of creating new future situations on Earth for the compensation of past karma, and allows others to receive needed help by means of these liberated forces. These spiritual forces are freed to work in completely new forms or structures to promote evolutionary impulses.

This requires selflessness. In relation to our moral life, our understanding of the world, and in relation to all the activities of our consciousness soul, we must first overcome the self-seeking desires that still influence our moral, intellectual and emotional life. This is a duty of our present culture to the future. Humankind must become more and more selfless; therein lies the future of right living, and of all the deeds of love possible to earthly humanity.

You are invited to engage in the Metaphysics of Love, the School of Selflessness and the Way of Forgiveness.

Archangel Gabriel. by H. Chamberlain

What is needed above all is to develop a school of selflessness through a new knowledge of Christ, a renewing of responsibility, a deepening of one's moral life. A strengthening of our ethical life can develop only through a training in real, all-pervading selflessness.

CHOREOCOSMOS, the school of Cosmic and Sacred Dance, was founded by Robert Powell, PhD, and co-founder of the Sophia Foundation, with the intention of aligning one's self harmoniously with the spiritual-cosmic world and to celebrate the relationship of the human being with the cosmos and the earth. For biographical information about Robert Powell and books he has authored see www.sophiafoundation.org.

The Seven Planetary Seals above are images drawn by Rudolf Steiner in 1907. They were carved into the columns in the first goetheanum in Dornach, Switzerland. They depict the transformation of energy and consciousness through each stage of Earthly evolution. Each seals contain the secret of the life force, which is manifested in it. The seals are related to each other by a process of metamorphosis. Each form is related to the one before and after it like a seed, sprout, stem, leaf, bud, blossom and flower are all related but completely different. These forms are central to the planetary dances of Choreocosmos.
