

Exploring the Karmic Double, Forgiveness, and The Twelve Virtues

A weekend workshop given by
Karen Rivers, PhD

AUTHOR OF: Love and the Evolution of Consciousness

Friday, June 12, 8:00 - 9:30 p.m. Eastern Daylight Time
Saturday, June 13, 10:30 a.m. - 4:30 p.m.

Each individual bears a karmic past that includes all past deeds enacted in relation to others that require a karmic correction, or restoration of harmony. The sum total of all of these misdeeds enacted in all past lives constitutes a karmic double that is formed out of an individual biography. Each human being bears a unique karmic double that consists of luciferic and abrimanic qualities, interwoven into an inimitable configuration that reflects our personal un-ennobled nature. The Karmic Double creates a worldly foundation for us to be able to meet the conditions of our karma.

Friday evening, 8:00 - 9:30 p.m. We will explore Individual Karma, World Karma, and the Karmic Double.

Forgiveness has the potential to be of immeasurable significance for human evolution. It is among the most pressing spiritual issues of our time as well as a preeminent method of furthering spiritual evolution, both for individual human beings and for the Earth. "By forgiveness it is that the universe is held together."

— The Mahabharata

Saturday 11:45 a.m. - 1:00 p.m. Our conversation will focus on the Metaphysics of Forgiveness.

Practicing the Twelve Virtues creates a path to educate the emotions, refine the soul, and develop inner character. When we enter into the task of developing virtue, we enter into an alchemical process of transforming our soul life into capacities that establish a harmonious relationship with others and with the Soul of the Cosmos. The Virtues constitute a way of sacred service in the world for they are the means through which we unite the soul and spirit.

Saturday, 3:15 - 4:30 p.m. The Twelve Virtues as a means of uniting Heaven and Earth.
